Wedding Bells.

One of the prettiest weddings ever celebrated in Hondo occurred at the Methodist church at five o'clock Tuesday evening when Mr. Perry L. Crain and Miss Verna Mae Hudspeth were joined in wedlock, the Rev. J. M. Alexander, pastor of the church, officiating.

Loving friends had tastefully transformed the interior of the church into a bower of beauty. Pot plants of ferns and flowers occupied every point of vantage about the pulpit, while a double arch, entwined with vines and magnolias, from which a beautiful wedding bell was suspended, and under which the wedding party was met by the pastor, had been erected in front of the altar, forming a pleasing scene and one that will long linger in the memory of the throng that filled the church on this happy occasion.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white Georgette crepe over white satin, trimmed in bands of satin and hand-made roses and fillet lace, with demi-train veil—a simple yet most exquisite gown. A wreath of orange blossoms and a shower bouquet of white carnations and ferns, carried by the bride, completed a most pleasing and attractive costume and one that harmonized most effectively with the beauty of the wearer.

The bride's maids, Misses Jennie Crain, Enabel Rogers, Lola Buchanan, and Bessie Mae Chancey, carried bouquets of pink carnations and ferns and were lovely in gowns of pink chiffon taffeta, made in empire style, trimmed in pink rose buds, bride's-maid veils in Juliet style, of same color.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Marvin Beal, was handsomely gowned in pink chiffon taffeta, trimmed in roses, and hat of white point lace, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and ferns.

The ribbon bearers, Misses, Pearl Newton, Nettie Woods, Lucile Mercer, Johanna Rothe, Evelyn de Montel, Mary Kempf, Abbie Bradley, Nita Bradley, Lizzie Schuehle and Ethel Sanders, wore dainty gowns of pink and blue, Juliet caps of corresponding color, carrying bows of meleen entwined with flowers.

The maid of honor, Miss Paner Cowan, wore a gown of pale blue crepe de chine and chiffon, trimmed in cream point lace, headed with blue ribbon, veil in Juliet style in blue, trimmed in wreaths of blue forget-me-nots. Carried bouquet of pink carnations and ferns.

The flower girl, little Miss Marguerite Newton, was prettily gowned in dainty white lingerie with sash of pink ribbon. Carried basket of rose petals and daisies.

The bride-groom, Mr. Perry L. Crain, and his groomsmen, Messrs. Clarence Hudspeth (brother of the bride), Oranthy Fly, George Carle and Roland Rothe, were costumed in conventional attire.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, rendered by Miss Ellene Cowan. During the ceremony she rendered Schumann's beautiful "Traumeri."

Messrs. Othello Bradley, Marvin Beal and Earl Starnes, acted as ushers.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, R. H. Hudspeth, grew to lovely young womanhood here, and is universally esteemed for her many womanly qualities by the entire population, and the groom is to be congratulated on winning so fair and gentle a help-mate for the journey of life.

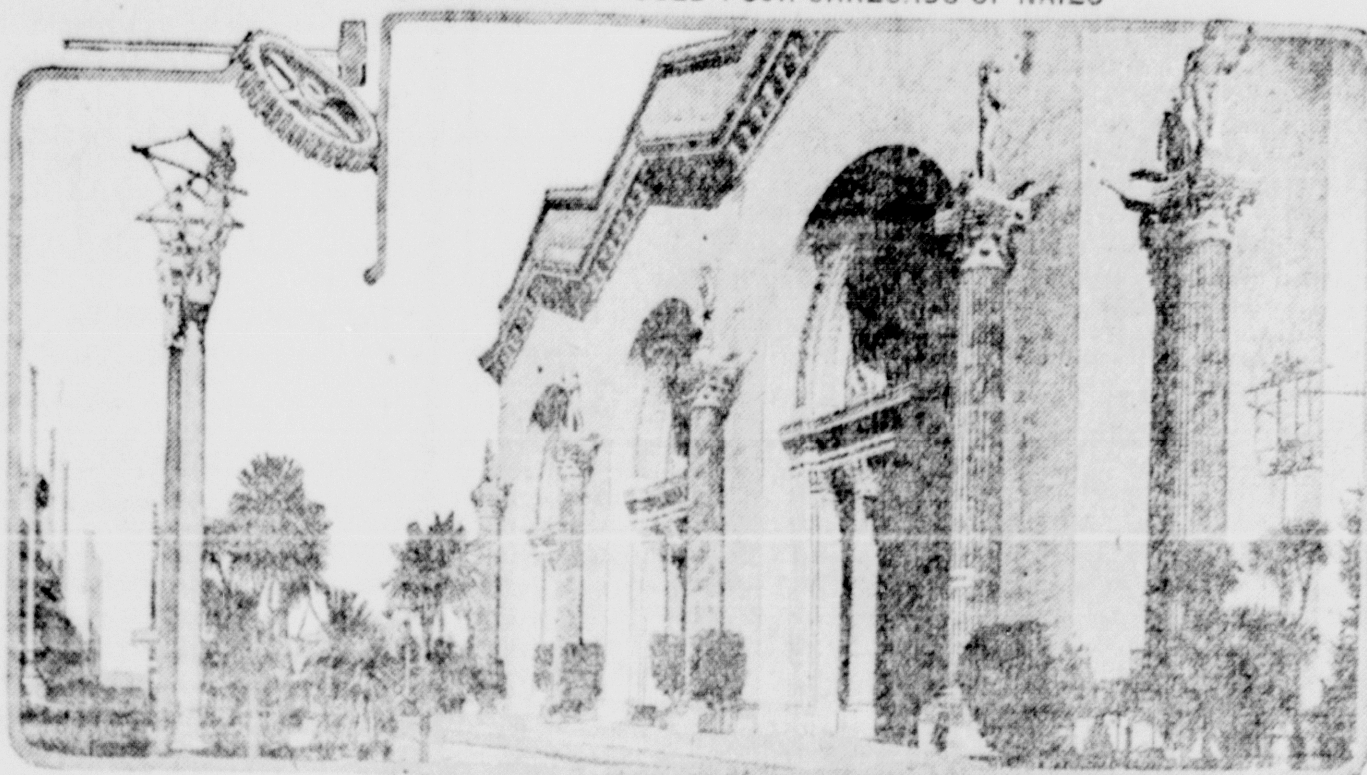

The groom is one of the rising young business men of Hondo and holds a responsible position with the Martin Drug Company. He has resided here for about three years, and his many manly qualities has won for him the warm friendship of the best people of this vicinity.

Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded couple, to avoid the pranks of friends who gathered in large number at the depot to see them off, stole a march and were speeding to Dunlay by automobile for the purpose of taking the train from there. However, some of their friends, not to be cheated out of their sport, boarded the train here with their sacks of rice and showered them liberally when they reached Dunlay.

After a short honeymoon of some two weeks which they will spend at various points of interest in the state, Mr. and Mrs. Crain will return to Hondo where they will make their future home.

To the happy young couple the Anvil Herald, in connection with all the people of Hondo, extends felicitations, and trusts that their fondest anticipations of a long, happy and prosperous married life may be more than realized.

Commencement Exercises.

The commencement exercises of the Hondo High School were held at the Auditorium Friday night.

The stage, which was occupied by the county superintendent, trustees, speakers of the evening and the graduating class, was tastefully decorated with ferns and pot plants, with the class motto, "Honor Waits at Labor's Gate," showing up very prominently in the back ground.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences ever assembled in the Auditorium was there to witness the brilliant and impressive ceremonies.

In his usual pleasing and impressive manner, Rev. J. M. Alexander, pastor of the Methodist church, pronounced the invocation.

Miss Nellie Wilson then charmingly entertained the large concourse with a piano selection.

J. Frank Jungman, the young and talented son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Jungman, Jr., delivered the salutatory in a very able manner.

The class song, led by Miss Locklin, and music by Miss Harris, was ably rendered by the graduating class, and captivated the audience.

Ralph S. Windrow delivered the valedictory, which showed great study and oratorical ability on his part.

Mr. Davis introduced Judge Blocker, who spoke at length upon the great educational advantages of Hondo and Medina county, and praised the county superintendent, the trustees and the faculty of the Hondo High School.

Judge Blocker was followed by Dr. D. A. Penick, professor of Greek and Latin of the State University, who delivered an interesting address along educational lines.

In a few well chosen words, Mr. Fletcher Davis, president of the school board of the Hondo High School, presented the diplomas to the class.

Miss Nellie Wilson charmingly rendered another selection on the piano.

The exercises were closed with a benediction ably delivered by Rev. W. L. Marlin.

There were about eight hundred people present to see the imposing array of brilliant young graduates commence their journey through a field of usefulness.

The following are the graduates:

Misses Belle Hancock, Jennie Mae Dowdy and Ruth Peterson; Messrs. Arthur and Frank Jungman, Ralph Windrow, Elbert de Montel, Fred Brucks, Guido Richter, Luther Peterson, Wesley McClaugherty, Percy Locklin and Leo Schweers.

Broke Her Arm.

Little Leora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Horger, had the misfortune to break her left arm between the wrist and elbow Wednesday. The accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCall. Leora was playing on the steps, which are rather high, stepped backward and fell with the result above stated. The injured member received immediate surgical attention and the little Miss is making a good recovery, her greatest inconvenience now resulting from her enforced confinement.

Mr. and Mrs. Horger have made their plans to leave for a visit to the Panama Exposition, at San Francisco, Monday, and it is the opinion of the attending physician that little Leora will be sufficiently recovered by then to undertake the journey.

Mr. Fletcher Davis' Opinion of Country.

Fletcher Davis, a well known newspaper man and owner of the Hondo Anvil Herald, and who is also a farm lecturer, connected with the State Department of Agriculture, was here this week and organized a Farmers' Institute Monday night and delivered an address to the farmers. He was raised on the farm and has made a close study of farming and the conditions confronting the farmer.

Mr. Davis was carried out to the country to see some of our farms, orchards, etc., and he was greatly surprised at the remarkable achievements in agriculture that have been accomplished here in little more than three years. He says that we have a fine country here and as rich and fertile a soil as can be found in Texas, and this, with such favorable climatic conditions as we have there is no doubt but what we are to have a rich and progressive agricultural section built up in the Frio Valley Farms country.

But what impressed Mr. Davis most favorably as to the future of our country as a successful farming community is the wide awake and hustling class of farmers that comprise our citizenship, their hearty and active co-operation and study of conditions and problems and the unanimity in which they are working together for bettering the conditions of the farmers throughout this section. Before leaving for Tildap, where he lectured Wednesday, Mr. Davis stated that where such great results had been accomplished in so short a time as had been done there was no doubt as to future successful results.—Fowlerlton Reporter.

A Family Reunion.

There have been many merry parties at the exposition, but few more jolly than one composed of five sisters which recently took in the sights at the Magic City. They were Mrs. Ellen Head, 75, of Hondo, Texas; Mrs. E. W. Lewis, 62, of Marshallfield, Ore.; Mrs. C. D. Price, 60, postmistress, of Brancroft, Ore., and Mrs. Ed Price, 55, of Montague, Cal., who are enjoying a reunion after 48 years at the home of Mrs. Sunderlin at National City.

They were just about as spry as younger folks, and the Isthmus attractions interesting them as well as the more dignified exhibits.

The five sisters had not met in 48 years. They set 1915, exposition year, as the date for the reunion, and every minute of it is being enjoyed.

The youngest sister, Mrs. Ed Price, is several times a grandmother, her eldest grandchild being 12.—The San Diego (Calif.) Sun.

Philathea Class Meets.

The Philathea Class met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Miller on Tuesday afternoon, May 25th.

There were sixteen members and three visitors present.

After the business of the class, a very interesting lesson was conducted by Rev. Alexander.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dilworth, served delightful punch and sandwiches.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. W. Short June 8th at 4 o'clock. The lesson for this time will be the books of Titus and Philomona.

T. B. C. Shower.

On Saturday, May 22nd, Miss Verna Mae Hudspeth was the recipient of one of the prettiest showers ever given in Hondo when the T. B. C. girls delightfully entertained in her honor with a novelty shower at the home of Miss Evelyn de Montel.

The guests were received in the library and, after a short time spent in pleasant chat, were shown into the dining room, which was artistically decorated in the color scheme of pink and blue.

Delicious punch and sandwiches were served by Misses Rothe and de Montel.

As the strains of the wedding march were heard, Mrs. Marvin Beal escorted the bride-to-be into the drawing room where she was seated on a flower-covered throne. Little Lucile Boon, representing cupid, entered drawing a flower-decorated cart loaded with dainty packages. The guests formed a semi-circle and viewed the many handsome and dainty gifts as the tiny cupid handed them out.

After which the company was invited to the spacious porch where delicious refreshments were served, consisting of an ice cream course of pink and blue lady slippers and cake, sweet peas being the plate favors.

After a short time spent in admiring the many gifts, the merry group departed with many happy wishes to the bride-to-be.

Devine 10, Hondo 8.

Thursday afternoon the Hondo ball team again mixed with the one from Devine, and it was certainly a disastrous mix, as Devine walloped the home team good and sufficient. Final score 10 to 8.

Redus held Hondo with ease until the last of the ninth when Starnes and the stinger end of the batting order started a batting rally, but Devine should worry at this time, being seven tallies to the good. Redus let Hondo have all the fun they wanted until they got dangerous, he then squashed them just like that (business of snapping fingers.)

Devine slammed Jake Miller with a vim and his team mates kicked "em good and hard, seven errors being chalked against them, so I suppose that the entire team can be blamed for this beating. It was simply one of their off days—which all ball teams have, anyway, the boys didn't quit until the last out in the ninth, whatever the fault of the Hondo bunch they are not quitters.

There was no feature play or player in this, outside of the fine brand of pitching of Redus and the lone four base hit of Ketchum. This was the longest drive of the season. This Ketchum, by the by, also scored three of Devine tallies.

Hondo missed Jim Goff just about like the farmer misses the price of cotton when it is six cents, for it surely tore the team to pieces when they couldn't see his ugly mug at home plate. Windrow was good for a boy who is on first base and an outfielder, but he lacks the experience and head that the old reliable had.

Starnes, Ransome, Ezzeil, W. Windrow and the Millers, Oscar and Jake, hit the ball nicely, the entire crew just mentioned getting two hits each.

This player, Ransome, by the way, is fast developing into some outfielder, pitchers as a rule like to see him come to bat—not. And I see lots of fielders now drawing pay in the Texas league that has nothing on this player.

The players of the home team are all peeved because of the punk exhibition of Thursday and before the largest crowd of the season, and are anxious for an opportunity to redeem themselves. It is a long way to the end of the season and there are several more games to be played with the Devine boys.

The Hondo management has promised to have better seating arrangements for the next game, as the present grand stand is entirely too small.

The next game here will be with Sabinal who performs here soon.

Batteries: Redus and Crawford; Miller and Windrow.

Umpire: Dr. Smith.

Terrific Hail Storm.

One of the most terrific and devastating hail storms that ever visited this section passed over a large portion of Medina county between twelve and one o'clock Monday morning. The storm was of short duration but wrought great havoc. The hail stones were of unusual size, many of them being as large as hen's eggs. While the destruction to glass, roofs, buildings, etc., were perhaps not as great as the one of February some two years ago, damage to growing crops, fruit, gardens and shade trees were much greater from Monday's storm than from our previous visitation.

The storm covered an area of some ten miles in width and thirty miles in length. The storm was much severer in some localities than in others—crops on some farms being destroyed while the damage to those on adjoining farms was comparatively trivial.

The fruit crop, which was rather promising despite the unfavorable spring, was practically denuded of their fruit and foliage.

Barn yard fowls in some sections fared rather bad, more than 150 being killed on one farm. It is also reported that two calves were killed by the hail, but so far as we know this report has not been confirmed.

The farmers who had their crops destroyed have gone resolutely to work replanting both corn and cotton, and are quite sanguine that they will yet make good crops. It is quite probable that this misfortune will cause a larger acreage to be planted in cotton than was the original crop, as it is yet ample time to raise a good cotton crop, while owing to our usual summer dry period makes the raising of a corn crop rather uncertain.

On a good many of the farms where at first the farmers thought the corn crops destroyed have since discovered that the damage was over estimated and are now hopeful of a fair yield.

The storm was a great misfortune and will entail additional hard work on the farms, but the farmers of Medina county are a resolute bunch, and the Anvil Herald predicts that they will market the usual amount of farm products the coming fall.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends for the assistance, kindness and sympathy shown us during the sad funeral of the beloved wife and sister, Mrs. Emma Eckhart Bryan. Respectfully,

SECTION of the great central court, the Court of the Sun and Stars, designed by Messrs. McKim, Mead and White. This court, approximately 750x900 feet, will divide the main rectangle of exposition buildings from north to south. Upon the east of the court figures—elephants, camels, Arab warriors—symbolical of the Orient will surmount a huge arch, the Arch of the Rising Sun, larger than the Arc de Triomphe; upon the west of the court the story of the setting sun will be depicted; surmounting the arch upon the west prairie schooners and figures of pioneers who pushed across the western plains will be shown.

WHEN A QUARTER OF A MILLION OF PEOPLE INAUGURATED THE VAST PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION AT SAN FRANCISCO

Transportation reports show that every state in the United States and most of the nations of the world were represented in the great throng of 250,000 people who inaugurated the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco on February 20. This picture, showing the mighty South gardens, gives a glimpse of a small fraction of the opening day throng. In the first five days of its progress the exposition had an attendance larger than the combined totals of the Chicago and St. Louis expositions and the ratio continues in a degree to justify predictions of the most spectacular success for the exposition.

TAINTED POLITICS

By Peter Radford.

This country is suffering more from tainted politics than from any other malady at the present time. There is scarcely a campaign speech made, a platform demand written or a measure enacted into law that does not carry the taint of personal gain of some politician or political faction thereof.

There is more "blue sky" in campaign promises of many politicians running for office than was ever contained in the prospectuses of the boldest promoters of chimerical business schemes. There are more secret combinations formed by politicians in the name of "My Country" than were ever formed under any and all other aliases. There are more political rebates hidden in the phrase "Be it enacted" than were ever concealed under any and all other disguises.

The inordinate thirst for political power and unrestrained passion for mastery has caused more distress in this nation than the greed for gold, and it ought to be regulated by law. No business combination ever pursued their competitors as relentlessly or visited more heartless cruelty upon their customers than a political party that seeks to make junk of an industry, or cripple a business for party success, through tariff measures, political supervision and oftentimes destructive legislation. Many political platforms are as alluring to the voter as the story of the rainbow with its pot of gold and their consummation about as far-fetched. Self-gain is the first law in politics. There are many men in office today who, if they could not shake plums off the tree of American liberty or cut a melon taken from Uncle Sam's commissary, would have less desire to serve the public.

The country is surfeited with patriots, who will bare their breast to bullets in defense of their country, but there are few men in public life who will bare their breast to voters or run the gauntlet of party disfavor in defense of agriculture or industry. No representative of the people, who will permit personal prejudice to dethrone justice, party success to disfranchise reason or the rancor of a political campaign to influence judgment can render capable service.

The preservation of our prosperity depends upon wisdom, courage and honesty in government, and the American voter should seek these attributes as implicitly as the Wise Men followed the Star of Bethlehem and they will often be found to rest over the stable; the plow or the staff of the Shepherd. The surest cure for tainted politics and machine rule is fresh air and sunshine and these important elements are most abundant upon the farm, and when farmers, bankers and merchants are elected to membership in legislative bodies, much of the trouble in government will disappear.

WATERED SECURITIES

By Peter Radford.

Much has been said and more written about the evils of watered stock in big business concerns and the farmers of this nation believe that every dollar written into the life of any business organization, should be able to say "I know that my Redeemer liveth," but farming is the biggest business on earth, and there is more water in its financial transaction than that of any other industry. There is as much water in a farmer's note drawing eight or ten per cent interest when other lines of industry secure money for four or five per cent per annum, as there is in a business paying a reasonable compensation upon the face value of securities representing an investment of only fifty cents on the dollar. The only difference is, the water is in the interest rate in one instance and in the securities in the other.

The promoter oftentimes takes chances and his success is contingent upon the development of the property involved but the usurer, as a rule, takes no chances and his success cripples the property involved. There may be industries that cry louder but none that suffer more severely from financial immorality in both law and custom than that of agriculture.

The farmers of America today are paying $200,000,000 per annum in usury on real estate and chattel loans, and this interest capitalized at five per cent, represents $4,000,000,000 of fictitious values which the farmer is paying interest on. This sum of money is almost equal to the annual value of crops produced in the United States.

The earning power of the farmer's note based upon his interest rate very nearly divides like the earth's surface—three-fourths water and one-fourth land. The largest body of water that floats upon the financial hemisphere now rests upon the farms and its waves are dashing and its billows are rolling against seven million homes threatening ruin and disaster to the prosperity of the nation. Will our public servants who understand how to drain the liquid off industrial properties turn the faucet and let the water off the farms?

It is an admitted economic fact that there can be no permanent prosperity without a permanent agriculture.

Agriculture is recognized as the greatest of all industries and a prosperous, progressive and enlightened agricultural population is the surest safeguard of civilization.

Some Marvelous Exhibits at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition

Exhibits in Agricultural Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Show Caterpillar Gaining Favor Over Lug-wheeler Tractors in Farm Machinery.

An observer in the Agriculture Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco cannot help noticing, in the display of agricultural power machinery, the almost complete supersession of the new design of power tractor, known as the caterpillar, over the cumbersome, unstable, high-wheeled engine of a few years ago. There are few of the old models on exhibition, while the caterpillar principle has been applied to almost every type of engine for agricultural purposes.

The caterpillar proper is a heavy sheet metal chain, varying in width from ten inches to two feet according to the weight of the engine, which passes around two heavy sprocket wheels like a belt. These wheels revolving, pass the chain about them, the lower part moving backward, with the weight of the engine resting on the broad surface of the chain between the two sprockets.

An engine of this type can be operated on ground soft enough to mire an ordinary farm wagon.

Duplicate of the Roosevelt African Shotgun.

A duplicate of the shotgun which Col. Theodore Roosevelt took with him on his African trip, a gun constructed expressly for him by an American armorer, is on display at the manufacturer's exhibit in the Manufacturers' Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco. The gun cost its illustrious owner $350, and its beautiful design, graceful lines and wonderful inlay work would justify the expenditure to any lover of fine pieces. The stock is elaborately hand carved, the barrels and lock are hand engraved, and the lock is inlaid with a hunting scene in gold. The barrels are of the finest Krupp steel. Before starting on the trip the ex-president wrote to the makers: "I really think it is the most beautiful gun I have ever seen. I am almost ashamed to take it to Africa and subject it to the rough treatment it will receive."

In a group in this Palace are displays by four of the world's greatest manufacturers of sporting arms, which form an exhibit which attracts hundreds of sportsmen. Each display is in charge of a firearms expert.

Pearl Culture a New Industry.

Among the interesting exhibits of the Japanese in the Manufacturers' Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is a demonstration of the methods and results of pearl cultivation in the far East. The displays of this cultivated product, showing hundreds of pearls which until pearl culture was placed on a commercial basis a few years ago would have been the possessions of royalty, will delight any lover of beautiful gems, and the methods of production will prove interesting to any observer. Though pearl culture has become a thriving industry in Japan, attempts to reproduce it in other parts of the world have yielded but meager results.

The successful method of propagation was evolved by the Japanese scientist Kokichi Mikimoto, who discovered a species of oyster which produced the pearl on the surface of the shell. Though the finding of the oysters and inserting the nuclei, then waiting for the pearl to grow to a commercial size may seem a simple process, the fact that it has not reduced the price of the gems, even to that of the most expensive imitations, shows that it is beset with many difficulties.

Daniel Webster's Plow at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

One of the most valuable exhibits commercially, in the Agricultural Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, is an ancient plow displayed in the Massachusetts exhibit, and forming a striking contrast to the highly-complex modern machinery displayed on the acreage of floor about it.

The plow owes its distinction to the circumstance that a hundred years ago Daniel Webster's youthful hands guided it along the furrows of his father's farm near Marshfield, Mass. It was drawn by a yoke of oxen and if the future peer of American orators and statesmen could turn an acre of sod a day he had to work from daylight to dark.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

THIS is unquestionably the best remedy for colic, cholera and diarrhoea. It is a powerful laxative and purgative, and it is a powerful remedy for all the ailments of the bowels. It is a powerful remedy for all the ailments of the bowels. It is a powerful remedy for all the ailments of the bowels.

Made My Life Worth Living

"I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me," writes Mrs. L. Dunlap, of Oak Grove, Mich. "I have suffered with pains in my back and under my shoulder blades for a number of years, also with a poor appetite and constipation. I tried all of the remedies that I heard of, and a number of doctors, but got no relief. Finally a friend told me to try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I got a bottle of them and they soon helped my stomach; by their gentle action my bowels became more regular. Today I feel like praising them to all who suffer as I did, for they have cured me and made my life worth living."

Almost Like a Face-to-Face Chat

Mr. Jones had gone to a distant city on business to be away for several days, and had left his wife on the farm with no companion, except a small child.

But she was not lonesome, for each day her husband called up for a few minutes' chat by Long Distance Bell Telephone.

Lead Me Aright.

I do not ask that flowers should always spring beneath my feet; I know too well the poison and the sting of things too sweet.

For one thing only, Lord, dear Lord, I plead; lead me aright. Though strength should falter and though heart should bleed, Through peace to light.

—A. A. Procter.

WHEN every farmer in the South shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures, and disturbed by no creditor, and enslaved by no debt, shall sit amid his teeming gardens, orchards, vineyards, dairies and barnyards picking his crop in his own wisdom, and growing them in independence, making cotton his clean surplus, selling it in his own time, in his chosen market and not at a master's bidding—getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges his debt but does not restore his freedom—then shall be breaking the fullness of our day.—Henry W. Grady.

I THINK sometimes that our common definition of dissipation is far too narrow. We confine it to crude excesses in the use of intoxicating liquor or the crude gratification of the passions; but often these are only the outward symptoms of a more subtle inward disorder. The things of the world—a thousand clamoring interests, desires, possessions—have got the better of us. Men become drunken with the inordinate desire for owning things, and dissolute with ambition for political office. I knew a man once, a farmer, who debauched himself upon land; fed his appetite upon the happiness of his home cheated his children of education, and he went shabby, bookless, joyless, comfortless, that he might buy more land. I call that dissipation, too!—From "Hempfield," by David Grayson, in the American Magazine.

NOTHING STANDS AS HIGH as a remedy for every womanly ailment, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's the only medicine for women certain in its effects.

"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nerve, and a complete cure for all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the sex.

For young girls just entering womanhood, for women at the critical time, nursing mothers, and every woman who is "run-down," tired or overworked—it is a special, safe, and certain help.

Mrs. BERTHA GREEN, of No. 512 Grant Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas, says:

"I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and can say it is surely a fine medicine and will do all it is claimed to do."

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. Send Doctor Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 31 one-cent stamps to cover wrapping and mailing only.

Treatise on Bugs and Worms.

College Station, Texas,

May 26, 1915.

Mr. H. H. Rothe, Hondo, Texas.

Dear Sir:—

We are just in receipt of your package containing two grubs. These prove to be the true white grubs, which are the larval or immature stage of the June bug or May beetle.

These beetles lay their eggs in small balls of earth in the soil, preferably in grass land. The eggs hatch into small grubs which feed upon the roots of plants, and these grubs mature slowly, two years being required for them to become full grown. At least three full years are required for the life cycle of this insect. However, the various broods of this insect overlap so that it is probable that the adult beetles are present every year. The beetles feed at night on the foliage of trees.

As allowing land to remain in grass is conducive to the increase of the grubs, a frequent rotation will prevent their increase. Grass should be followed by small grains or potatoes, since these crops are not seriously attacked by the grubs. Since the beetles remain over winter in the soil, deep plowing and thorough harrowing late in the fall or early in the spring will kill large numbers and will bring to the surface many more. These will be killed by exposing them to the attacks of weather and their enemies, such as birds. Chickens and turkeys are very fond of these grubs when they are turned to the surface of the ground. Crows and blackbirds are also very fond of white grubs.

There is then little that can be done to prevent the injury by these insects except crop rotation.

Trusting this information will be of service to you and awaiting your further pleasure, I am,

Very truly yours,

F. E. PADDOCK
Assistant State Entomologist.

Not For Men Only.

Women suffer as much as men do from indigestion and constipation and require the same scientific remedy to keep the stomach sweet, the liver active and the bowels regular. Foley Cathartic Tablets are wholesome and cleansing; do not gripe or cause nausea. Stout people say this is the one cathartic that takes away that over-full and clogged-up feeling. W. H. Windrow, Hondo; Louis Carle, D'Hanis.

WORKED HIS WAY THROUGH UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Jack G. Grissom

That there is no boy in Texas so poor who, having the ambition, the health and the will, cannot obtain a University education, is demonstrated by J. G. Grissom, whose photograph in reproduction appears above. Mr. Grissom will receive this year two degrees from the University of Texas, the degree of Bachelor of Arts and the degree of Master of Arts. He has earned himself every penny he has spent at the University. But for the munificence of the state in supporting a University it would be impossible for poor boys to secure a University education. Handicap young Grissom, for instance, with a payment of $200 per year for tuition, and he would be unable to attend the University. The founders of the Republic pointed out this fact, that whereas the rich can send their sons and daughters anywhere, to the East, to Europe, or to the Orient, to secure an education, the children of the poor must depend upon state supported institutions of higher education. Therefore, the University of Texas has been truly called "the poor man's school," since above half of the students within its walls are either in whole or in part self-supporting, and fifty per cent of the remainder would be unable to attend a university that demanded tuition-fee.

Radium Used to Promote Plant Growth.

Some of the remarkable properties of radium are being demonstrated by an exhibitor in the Liberal Arts building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, in connection with a new invention making possible the radiofying of water for medicinal purposes.

Demonstrating the power of this mineral promoting metabolism a number of young plants, some existing with and some without the aid of radium, are shown. Those in the radioactive soils are seen to be growing much more rapidly than those in common soil, and to have a more healthy appearance.

This inventor has found a process of impregnating terra cotta bricks with radium-bearing minerals, and these small bricks placed in water are said to give it remarkable curative properties. The porous bricks last almost indefinitely, losing only half their potency, it is estimated, in 1,800 years. Since the discovery of this mineral it has been found that many celebrated waters, as Carlsbad and Baden Baden, owe their health giving properties to radium. The inventor claims that his process produces in ordinary waters the qualities of these famous springs.

The radium ore used in the manufacture of radioactive terra cotta is known as carnotite, a formation found mainly in Colorado and Utah, and now producing three-fourths of the world's radium. The European mineral, known as pitchblende, from which the famous European springs are impregnated, is also displayed.

Had Eight Sets of Twins.

Squire Robert I. Mitchell, who visited his old home near Ridgeville recently, brought back a bit of rare news. The wife of West Graves, a negro of that section, has just presented her husband with the eighth consecutive set of twins. The young couple have been married about thirteen years, the knot having been tied by Squire Mitchell when he was a justice of the peace. A remarkable circumstance thereof is the fact that in each set of twins was a boy and a girl. There are eight children living, one of each set having died.—Caswell (N. C.) Dispatch to New York Tribune.

He Removed the Danger Signal

"I suffered a long time with a very weak back," writes Fred Smith, 325 Main St., Green Bay, Wis. "A few boxes of Foley Kidney Pills completely relieved me of all soreness and pain in the back, and now I am as strong and well as ever."
One cannot help becoming nervous and feeling tired and worn out when the kidneys fail to filter and throw out of the system the poisonous waste matter that causes kidney troubles and bladder ailments.
Backache is one of Nature's danger signals that the kidneys are clogged up and inactive. It is often followed by rheumatism, annoying bladder or urinary disorders, puffy swellings under the eyes, swollen ankles and painful joints.
Foley Kidney Pills get right at the source of trouble. They invigorate the kidneys to healthy action and when the kidneys properly perform their functions the poisonous waste matter is eliminated from the system.

In Loving Remembrance of Little Fritzie.

(Fritzie Henry, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Burrell, died May 25, 1915, and was laid to rest at the place of Grandpa Fritz Musman. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the grief-stricken parents.)

As we are to death so near
That we should not grieve
If one that to us so dear
From us will take his leave.

So it was with Little Fritzie—
He has left you all too soon,
Left you all here in your sorrow,
His death o'er you has cast a gloom.
He is gone from you forever,
And you no more will see him here,
You think there is no greater sorrow,
For to you he was so dear.

Indeed he was so dear to you
It's hard, so very hard,
Indeed, you all loved him so true,
And yet you had to part.

Despair not loving, tender parents,
Do not break down in your grief,
Weep not faithful, loving brothers,
Though from you he took his leave.

Now your hearts are sore and weary,
But it will not be for aye,
Though now all is dark and dreary,
Think once there'll come a glad some day.

Once there'll be a glad tomorrow,
And you'll see him face to face,
From your hearts you'll banish sorrow
When your darling you'll embrace.

When you'll see your angel baby
On the bright and golden shore,
When you meet your darling Fritzie
Smiling as he did of yore.

There will be a happy union
In that far off peaceful land,
Always with your darling Fritzie,
Always with him hand in hand.

Therefore grieve not parents and brothers,
Think of that home far above
When you will be with little Fritzie,
All in union and in love.

HIS AUNT, I. M.

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

R.A. WALSH AND EAGLE EYE IN "THE OUTLAW'S REVENGE IN THE DAWN OF A NEW REPUBLIC"
FOUR-PART MUTUAL MASTERPICTURE—PRODUCED BY RELIANCE

General Francisco Villa, the Mexican bandit Napoleon, who fashioned a modern army out of the raw rangers of the plains of Chihuahua, is the hero of "The Outlaw's Revenge in the Dawn of a New Republic," another of the series of Mutual Masterpictures inaugurated by the Mutual Film Corporation to anticipate the public demand for better motion pictures. These four and five reel feature films have already caused a notable improvement in the moving drama all over the country. The production was made by the Reliance Company in four reels under the direction of W. Christy Cabanne. R. A. Walsh plays the outlaw, General Villa, and he is ably supported not only by the always delightful Mae Marsh, but by Robert Harron, Eagle Eye, Irene Hunt, Teddy Sampson, Walter Long, W. E. Lawrence, Spottiswoode Aitken and F. A. Turner as well.

SCENE FROM "THE DEVIL" FIVE PART MUTUAL MASTERPICTURE
PRODUCED BY NEW YORK MOTION PICTURE CORPORATION

"The Devil," one of the latest of the Mutual Masterpictures, has a wonderful cast and is in every way worthy of the time, trouble and money expended by Thomas H. Ince in adapting this play of Franz Molnar's in line with the Mutual's "better motion picture" policy to film purposes. The actors and actresses who impersonate the principal characters in this drama need no introduction to theatrical audiences.

Bessie Barriscale, who assumes the responsibility of making the principal feminine role effective on the screen, is called upon to do some difficult acting, but succeeds admirably in her efforts. Miss Barriscale is new to the movies. Her success on the speaking stage inspired great hopes for her. These hopes are fully justified by her work in this, her first screen part. In "The Rose of the Rancho" and as Luana in "The Bird of Paradise" she left behind her impressions still pleasantly remembered by theatrical audiences.

As a co-star Miss Barriscale has no less celebrated an actor than Edward Connelly, whose appearance in George Ade's play "Marse Covington" was greeted with enthusiasm by critics the country over. Mr. Connelly plays the part of the Devil. His impersonation of the overlord of hades has a serpent-like quality that fairly leaps, sharp tongued, from the film.

STAR DESERTS BROADWAY FOR THANHOUSER STUDIO

Louise Rutter, Who Starred with Famous Players, Enters Screen Work.
Louise Rutter, known to thousands of play-goers, and one of the most talked of and written of members of the speaking stage, has recently become a member of the Thanhouser (Mutual) studios, at New Rochelle, New York, and will be seen shortly in the lead in a photoplay now being prepared for her.

LOUISE RUTTER, BROADWAY STAR, NOW A MEMBER OF THE THANHouser (MUTUAL) FORCES.

Miss Rutter is known throughout theatrical circles as the possessor of the most remarkable speaking voice on the stage. During her career on the legitimate, she played the leading feminine roles alongside such famous players as William Gillette, Arnold Daly, Richard Bennett, Douglas Fairbanks, and Edwin Stevens. She has also played with Ethel Barrymore and Dorothy Donnelly.

In Miss Rutter the Thanhouser studio has secured a young performer who, while new to screen work, will, nevertheless, undoubtedly prove as big a success as she did on the legitimate stage.

Betting on the Game.

It came to the notice of the base ball management that several persons had made large bets on the result of Thursday's game between Devine and Hondo, with the result of almost causing the team to lose the use of the present ball grounds. Judge de Montel has loaned the grounds to the boys free of charge, with the understanding that betting on the game will not be tolerated, and when the report of several large wagers was circulated he naturally told the management that the game could not be played under the circumstances. Virtually all bets were called off, and the game was played as reported.

Betting on base ball will kill the game quicker than any other thing, and if the local sports who have the habit will just think of this, I am sure they will refrain. Betting killed horse-racing, boxing, and every other game that we ever had. Base ball, so far, has survived the tin-horn sports, because the leaders of the game have always attempted to eliminate them from the game.

Betting will not be tolerated on the ball grounds, and we feel that it is the duty of the county officials to take steps to prevent it down town. It is against the law, and the law should be enforced in this respect as much as in any other.

It is also rumored that a certain party approached one of the players, and offered him a sum of money to throw this game. The writer hasn't investigated the truth of this rumor, but if it is true, it is the lowest down act that has ever come under our observation during twenty years connection with the game of base ball, and we haven't command of sufficient language to express ourselves on this point as we would like to. Besides the paper has to go through the mail, and Uncle Sam is very particular regarding language printed in newspapers. It is a cowardly act, and is resented by every person connected with the game in Hondo. CONTRIBUTED.

INBREEDING IN EDUCATION

"In round numbers," says a special writer for the San Antonio Express, in a recent issue of that paper, "2,500 students obtain instruction yearly within the walls of the University of Texas. Above 1,000 students go out into the state yearly, a portion with a full university course to their credit, the remainder having done one, two, or three years work in the institution.

"This heaven of advanced education being mixed and absorbed by the state each year makes incalculably for progress. There is danger of inbreeding in education, just as there is danger of inbreeding in people or in cattle.

"Suppose, for a moment, a state without higher institutions of learning to carry on the work begun in the common schools. Is it not clear that education would thus be reduced to narrow limits? The high school graduate becomes a teacher in the lower grades, and is eventually promoted to the higher grades and on to the high school. The high school then becomes officered and taught by its own graduates who have received no further training. There is no introduction of new thought, no widening of the horizon of knowledge or of methods, no new inspiration, or new ideals, and the machine's original impetus is overcome gradually by natural friction until the thing barely moves at all. It dies down like an unaided pendulum. You have inbreeding in education with all the deformities and weaknesses incident to inbreeding in the animal world.

"The higher educational institution of a state," continues this writer, "are the natural intermediaries between the common schools and the vast world of ideas and inspiration developed by the best thought and the highest paid talent in all the great educational institutions of Christendom. For example, a new and improved method of teaching modern languages is developed in some foreign country. It is the business of the higher educational institutions of a state to secure an exponent of this method direct from Germany for its faculty. This teacher teaches his students in the new method, they, in turn, go out as teachers in the state spreading the new method, and pretty soon it has permeated the whole educational system of the state. This is merely an example. It may not be a new method, but a new and original thought, or a new store of knowledge that is communicated in the same way. The point is that the higher educational institution maintains touch with the world of ideas and transmits new and advanced methods and fresh knowledge throughout all of its dependent institutions. It is as important to the vast school system of the state as the switch-board is to the telephone exchange. It is 'central' for the communication of new ideas, new methods, fresh knowledge, vaster inspiration."

Most Rapid Photographs Ever Taken.

The most remarkable set of speed photographs ever taken are a part of the war department's exhibit in Machinery Hall at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco. They are pictures of a shell from a 12-inch coast defense gun in flight, the set including the various phases of the flight beginning just as the great projectile pokes its nose out of the muzzle of the gun.

The pictures were taken with a lens having an exposure period of one five-thousandth of a second, this being the fastest shutter ever manufactured. The exposure at the proper time in the flight of the projectile was made by breaking an electric circuit in a wire stretched across the trajectory at the desired point and connecting with the shutter.

One picture shows the shell half-way out of the muzzle before any smoke and gas has escaped. Another was taken when the shell was two feet from the muzzle but hidden by a heavy ring of smoke. A third shows the shell in flight a hundred feet from the muzzle. The photographs are so perfect and the exposure so rapid that scarcely any blur is perceptible. They were taken at Fortress Monroe, Va., under the direction of Capt. F. J. Behl of the coast artillery corps and head of the department of enlisted specialists at the Coast Artillery school at Fortress Monroe.

Two Very Poor Reasons

If some housewives inadvertently use baking powder which contains alum it is Usually for two reasons—lack of knowledge as to what it is made of, or because it costs less than a standard brand like Royal Baking Powder, which is made from cream of tartar.

There is no longer any reason for lack of knowledge, since the label on every baking powder can shows in plain English just what it contains. If the label on your can names alum as one of the ingredients, and you are in doubt about its unhealthfulness, your doctor can enlighten you.

As to the lower cost, there is very little difference in practical use, about one cent for a whole cake or pan of biscuits—a mere trifle when you consider the vast difference in healthfulness in favor of food made with Royal Baking Powder.
